March 27, 2017

Dear 5th Grade Parent/Guardian:

The Wayne Public Schools will be requiring all enrolled fifth grade students in the district to provide current documents that demonstrate residency in Wayne. Proof of residence must be provided as follows:

1) A deed or current lease

Please bring the deed or lease for your Wayne residence to your in-person appointment at your child's school. If a deed or lease is not available, an affidavit may be used. Specific affidavits for different family living situations are available on the Registration Documentation Page on the wayneschools.com website. Please note all affidavits must be notarized.

2) Two additional documents showing attachment to your Wayne address

Please provide two pieces of mail that show the family name and the address in Wayne that is your child's residence. A complete list of acceptable documents is also available on the wayneschools.com website.

Parents must bring in the above proof of residency in-person to the school secretary for review and copying on the following dates and times: Monday-Friday, (9:30 AM-11:30 AM and 2:00 PM-3:00 PM). The registering parent will be asked to show proof of identity (driver's license or other proof). All current proofs of residency must be provided by June 22, 2017. Parents that do not provide current residency documentation may be subject to payment of tuition and/or disenrollment of their child(ren).

Sincerely,

Ethan Maayan
Principal
